COVID-19 Global Conversation: Germany

Submitted by Michael Neininger on June 15, 2020 - 6:42pm

A series of conversations between Jackson School faculty and experts in other countries experiencing Covid-19

COVID19 Global Conversation: Germany

Niko Switek, Visiting DAAD Assistant Professor at the Henry M. Jackson School of International Studies/German Studies/ Political Science at the University of Washington speaks about COVID-19 in Germany with Christoph Strünck, professor for Social Policy, University of Siegen and director of the Institute of Gerontology, Dortmund, in Düsseldorf, Germany.

People Involved:  Niko Switek

News Category:
- Announcements
- Community Impact
- Faculty and Staff

Related Fields:
- Digital Humanities
- German
- International Studies
- West European

Related Departments: