UW President Ana Mari Cauci Responds to New ICE Rules

Submitted by Stephanie N. Welch on July 9, 2020 - 11:01am

The Department of Germanics endorses UW President Cauce's statement characterizing the ending of flexibility for international students as cruel and oblivious to the reality of the pandemic.

"The University of Washington stands with our international students and scholars, and against this and other recent immigration-related actions that are pointless, heartless, and a betrayal of the nation's values." Read Caucci's full statement here.

Students who want to learn more about the latest developments are encouraged to consult ISS's COVID-19 information page, found here.